QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S PLEA. The Queen Mother Alexandra of Great Britain has addressed the following letter to the nation.

"From the depth of my poor broken heart I wish to express to the whole nation and our own kind people we love so well my deep thanks for all their touching sympathy in my overwhelming sorrow and unspeakable auguish. Not slove have I lost everything in him, my beloved busband, but the nation, too, has suffered an irreparable loss by the death of their best friend, father and sovereign thus suddenly called away. May God give us all His divine help to bear this heaviest of crosses, which He has seen fit to lay upon us. His will be done. Give me a thought in your prayers, which will comfort and sustain me in all I have to go through.

"Let me take this opportunity of expressing my heartfelt thanks for all the buthing let ers and tokens of sympathy I have received from all classes, high and low, rich and poor, which are so numerous that I fear it will be impossible for me to ever think everybody individ-

"I confide my dear son into your care, who, I know, will follow in his dear father's footsteps, begging you to show him the same loyalty and devotion you showed his dear in ther. I know both my dear son and daughter-in-law will do their utmost to meri and keep it "ALEXANDRA"

The Lordon World, a society paper, claims to have the best of authority for straing that the queen mether, Alexandra, had a presentiment while she was at Corfu that her husband was on the verge of a danger us illness. This presentiment was so strong that, although she intended to star another week, she left at short notice for Calais. But for this premonition, she says, she would hardly have arrived in time

In consequence of the continued circulation of rumors in regard to the health of the queen mother, an official statement was is usd yesterday evening, G. W. Ramsay. which says that she continues in good health, although she is naturally suffering great griet.

THE BAPTISTS.

The Southern Baptist Convention, in Baltimore, yesterday began its sessions at the Lyric and will corticue until next Monday.

Over 500 delegates and more than 2,000 persons including women and friends have arrived to part cipate in the convention.

The threstened difficulty concerning the proposed affiliation of the southern Illinois churches to the Suthern convention has been temporarily averted. The delegates were received yesterday and indications point to their acceptance by the convention although some objection may be offered on the convention floor.

It is understood that the temperance committee will praise President Ta't and Congress for the passage of laws designed to prevent the shipment of liquor into

"dry" territory.

STREET DUEL.

As a result of a street duel in Cordele, Gs., Monday, between Bowen Herber and Edward Mercer, brothers, on one side, and Snell Grove and William Benton on the other, Saell Grove and Becton are dying and Edward Mercer is dangercuils wounded. The duel was caused by attentions which Snell Grove had been paying a young sister of the Mercer brothers. Saell Grove had been warned to keep away from the girl. The latter, however, loved Snell Grove and asked him to come to her home Sanday

The Mercer brothers met Snell Grove and Benton in front of the postoffice at noon and the duel began at once Revolvers were used, and thirty shots were fired. Owing to the prominence of the families, it is feared that there will be ged to have her turn at wielding the whip. At this stage the secretary of the church ccurell speared apout he scene and put s stop to the whipping. Mrs. Monsess fainted at the time of the interruption.

Wednesday night at a meeting of the church council the resignation of Dr. Wilson was read and accepted. The charges egalost the minister were heard at a meeting month agoland it was decided to allow the matter to rest where it was. The metter was reopened, however, when prominent members of the church were shown affidavits from the girl in the possession of an attorney. The minister's declaration that the affidavita contained references to former ministers of the church brought on the attack of the mother and daughter.

THE METHODISTS.

At the quadrennial conference of the Methodist Episcopal Ouurch South in Asheville, N. O. last night, there was considerable discussion on the question of an assessment of 24 cents a member for the erection of a representative Southern Methodiet church in Washington. The convention finally indorsed this project by resolution, but left the method of raising the assessment to the discretion of the board of church ex-

The committee on temperance and other moral and social questions yesterday submited a report that all candide tes for the ministry be urged to abstain from the use of tobacco, and a minority report was submitted that the candidates be required to publicly declare intention to rentunce the use of tobacco.
